Physician Well-being: Does the Disease Model Work?

Tuesday, February 26, 2019 ~ 1:00-2:00 p.m. Eastern

Physician wellbeing strategies have been an articulated expectation for ACGME CLER and Section VI of the Common Program Requirements. This webinar will:

- Briefly review the ACGME Physician Well-being task force strategic trajectory and symposium goals since November 2015.
- Describe the Statewide Campus System Osteopathic Recognition (OR) model where Physician Wellbeing is one of the three domains and provide implementation examples.
- Define Change Theory and propose its use to outline success expectations for Physician Wellbeing programs more pragmatically.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of the session, learners should be able to:

- Summarize ACGME Wellbeing Taskforce Strategic Plan and Initiatives;
- Describe Statewide Campus System's Osteopathic Recognition Model with Physician Wellbeing as one of the three domains; and,
- Apply Change Theory to define success expectations for wellness programs.

Speaker:

Kari Hortos, DO has served on the ACGME Physician Well-Being Task force since 2017. She is the Chief Academic Officer for the Statewide Campus System and Associate Dean for Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine with extensive experience in both clinical and administrative medical education.
