

Individual Learning Plans: Creating Unique Plans for Resident Success

Tuesday, August 4, 2020 ~ 1:00-2:00 p.m. Eastern

This presentation will introduce core concepts of individual learning plans (ILPs) for residents and provide a basic guide for developing an ILP. We will evaluate the data supporting the benefits of creating ILPs and review current ACGME ILP requirements. We will provide a step-by-step guide for creating an ILP and share best practice examples.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of the session, learners should be able to:

- Identify the key benefits of an ILP;
- Understand the process of creating an ILP;
- Incorporate the ILP into the academic calendar and trainee self-assessment; and,
- Develop an ILP specific for their trainees.

Speaker:

Gary Legault, MAJ(P), MC, USA, is the PD for the SAUSHEC Ophthalmology Residency Program. He is also President of the Society of Military Ophthalmologists and Army Refractive Surgery Consultant to the Surgeon General.
