APE<sup>2</sup>: Transforming Your Annual Program Evaluation into an All-Inclusive Performance Event

Tuesday, August 9, 2022 ~ 1:00-2:00 p.m. Eastern

While the Annual Program Evaluation (APE) process is a responsibility of the Program Evaluation Committee, program stakeholder investment is paramount to comprehensively identifying and addressing areas of strengths and opportunities for improvement. We describe a stakeholder-led annual program evaluation process.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of the session, learners should be able to:

- Understand the ACGME requirements for Annual Program Evaluation;
- Maximize stakeholder engagement in the Annual Program Evaluation process; and,
- Develop a stakeholder-led comprehensive Annual Program Evaluation and Action Plan for their program.

Speakers:

Wilhelmine Wiese-Rometsch, MD, FACP has a long career as a clinician educator and graduate medical education leader. Prior to joining Florida State University (FSU) College of Medicine as the Founding Program Director for the Internal Medicine Residency Program at Sarasota Memorial Health Care System (SMHCS), she served as Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Designated Institutional Official at the Detroit Medical Center, where she had oversight of over 100 residency-training programs. Dr. Wiese-Rometsch is the immediate past-president of AHME.

Karen Hamad, MD, FACP, FAAP is the Founding Associate Program Director for the FSU/ SMHCS Internal Medicine Residency Program. She has previously served as Chief of Staff for SMHCS and is the GME representative on the Medical Executive Council. Dr. Hamad served as a member of the AAIM Collaborative on Optimization of the Clinical Learning and Working Environment.

Zachary Kirkland, DO is a Class of 2022 graduate of the FSU/SMH Internal Medicine Residency Program. He participated in our Annual Program Evaluation process for the past 3 years and joins our program's faculty on the teaching hospitalist service.

Moderator: Michelle Valdez, MA is the Executive Manager at San Antonio Uniformed Services Health Education Consortium (SAUSHEC). She serves as the current Chair of AHME's Council of Institutional Leaders (COIL).
