

Esprit de Corps:
Building an Alumni Network
Tuesday, December 6, 2016 ~ 1:00-2:00 p.m. Eastern

Your residents have received their certificates and have moved on to care for patients in our communities. Is that the end of your connection to them after years of training? It doesn't have to be! Learn how one program is building an alumni network to the benefit of all.

Objectives:

At the end of this session, the learner should be able to:

- Introduce basic concepts of leadership to build an esprit de corps;
- Discuss how to build an Alumni Network; and
- Review strategies for continuing to connect with Millennials and encouraging them to give back.

Speaker:

Shawn Cannon, DO, FACOI is the Chief Academic Officer at Southampton Hospital. He is a graduate of the Social Internal Medicine Program at the University Hospital, Albert Einstein College of Medicine, Montefiore Medical Center. He is board certified in Internal Medicine and Hospice and Palliative Medicine. He founded the Residency Program in Social Medicine at Southampton to ensure medical students and residents were educated in Pain Management, Addiction Medicine and Palliative Care.

Moderator:

Sharon Sullivan is the Director of Operations and Project Manager at the University at Buffalo. Ms. Sullivan is Chair of AHME's Council of Program Administrators and Coordinators.
