

The Art and Science of Feedback in Medical Education Using the New Clinician Educator Milestones in Professional Development Tuesday, June 7, 2022 ~ 1:00-2:00 p.m. Eastern

The new Clinician Educator Milestone Project from ACGME, ACCME, AAMC and AACOM will have a big impact on how we assess and train our clinician educators in all areas, including feedback. Join us for this informative webinar that joins the art of feedback with the structure of this new milestone project to explore helpful ways to assess feedback in the clinical setting.

Objectives:

At the conclusion of the session, learners should be able to:

- Become familiar with the Clinician Educator Milestone Project;
- Understand the Educational Theory & Practice Milestone 4 related to feedback in various roles across the UME/GME/CME continuum; and,
- Implement feedback techniques into your work that will reflect the Milestone language and best practice.

Speakers:

Laura Edgar, EdD, CAE is the Vice President, Milestone Development at the ACGME. She leads volunteers and staff members through the development of Milestones and related materials. Dr. Edgar creates and manages the Milestones resources available to all programs. Dr. Edgar earned her doctorate in education after obtaining a Bachelor's degree in medical laboratory sciences and a Master's degree in business administration.
